Installing and Running the software

- Go to START > All Programs > Citrix Program Neighborhood
• Click on Add ICA Connection

• This will open a new window to all a new ICA connection
• Type of Connection – Local Area Network

• Click Next
• Type the name of the connection

• Click on Published Application

• Scroll down to find the name of the software

• Click Next for the rest of the windows till you see Finish. Click Finish to complete the set-up
• Before you click on the new connection create a directory call “Quality” in your “H:\” drive
• Click on the connection and logon using your ISO password

[Image: Citrix Program Neighborhood - Custom ICA Connections]

• You can make similar connections for other software
  • XRCHRT
  • TURNSIM
  • PROCAP