

Guided Panel Questions

This is a start. This is in no way the end.

Goal one: How were people affected by the recent major events happening on this campus? This includes offensive Halloween costumes, the Yik Yak threat, and insensitive jokes in the Daily Bull.

1. How were you affected by these series of events taking place throughout this semester?
2. What do you think these event say about our campus?
3. What can we learn from situations like this?

Goal two: How to interact respectfully with all students, faculty, and staff in the Michigan Tech community.

1. Do you feel there is a specific way that the individuals who make up this campus should be treated?
2. Does it change based on race, orientation, and background? If so, in what way? Please use specific examples from your personal experiences.
3. How can we approach and interact respectfully with individuals on this campus who are different from ourselves, so that we inspire a strong sense of community throughout our campus?

Goal three: What can we do as a Michigan Tech community to ensure we move forward as one?

1. As we reflect on the events that happened over this semester with the Daily Bull, Yik Yak threats, and "Black Face" Halloween costumes, What do you think Michigan Tech needs to do going forward to create a more inclusive environment? Is it already inclusive enough?
