

Attitude is a little thing that makes a big difference.

- Winston Churchill

Based on statistics provided by the American Cancer Society, 271,530 women will die from cancer in 2008. 15% of these cancer patients will die from breast cancer, that is 40,729 women who will die from Breast Cancer this year. It is estimated that there will be 692,000 women that will be diagnosed with cancer this year. 26% of this diagnosis will be breast cancer patients. 179,920 women will be diagnosed this year with breast cancer?

So what does all this mean? And exactly what can you do to help? By coming out and supporting the Bra Show, you will show your support for breast cancer patients and survivors and you will be helping to find a cure for this disease.
