The traditional Slovenian Conference on Graph Theory, known also as “the Bled Conference”, is returning in its 10th edition. This time we again meet in Kranjska Gora between 18th and 24th of June 2023. The format of the conference remains largely the same as in the last few incarnations, with a number of distinguished plenary speakers, specialised minisymposia and contributed talks in the general section. The registration opens in early 2023, while the deadline for abstract submission is 15th May. For more information, please visit our website <https://sicgt.si>.

The following plenary speakers have so far confirmed their participation:

- Csilla Bujtas (Univeristy of Ljubljana, Slovenia)
- Edwin van Dam (Tilburg University, The Netherlands)
- Zdeněk Dvořák (Charles University, Czech Republic)
- Michel Lavrauw (University of Primorska, Slovenia)
- Karen Meager (University of Regina, Canada)
- Torsten Mütze (University of Warwick, UK)
- Dieter Rautenbach (Ulm University, Germany)
- Gordon Royle (University of Western Australia, Australia)
- Pablo Spiga (University of Milano–Bicocca, Italy)
- Anders Yeo (University of Southern Denmark, Denmark)
